THESE CRAZY SHIRTS ARE PURR-FECT!
Proceeds from annual Adopt-a-Cat designs benefit Hawaiian Humane Society

HONOLULU (June 8, 2017) - Crazy Shirts' latest endeavor for Adopt-a-Cat month will have cat lovers ecstatic! June is Adopt-a-Cat month and to celebrate people's love for their feline friends, partial proceeds from the Honolulu-based apparel company's limited release designs will be donated to the Hawaiian Humane Society (HHS).

"We're crazy about everything in our islands – the people, the land, the sea and the animals, both wild and domesticated! That's why Crazy Shirts is proud of our more than 30-year relationship with the Hawaiian Humane Society," said Mark Hollander, president and CEO of Crazy Shirts. "It's rewarding to know that our HHS designs have not only become sought after collector's items, but that the proceeds support their efforts and mission to connect people and animals."

One design features adorable posing for their "Hang Loose Selfie", while a second shows a bevy of mousers gets ready to "Meet Your Match Meow Not Later." Both designs include the Hawaiian Humane Society's tag line, "People for Animals. Animals for People."

The designs are available in men's, women's and children's sizes in both classic colors and specialty dyes. The Ts are available at select Crazy Shirts retail stores, as well as online at CrazyShirts.com and retail for $25 - $33.

About Crazy Shirts

Founded in 1964, Crazy Shirts is among the first companies in Hawaii to design, manufacture and sell the "T-shirt" as we know it today. Housing the largest printing facility in Hawaii, on the Island of Oahu, and employing over 300 employees, the company operates retail stores on all major Hawaiian Islands, as well as stores in California, Colorado, Nevada, and Florida.
