

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA CONTACT:

Jocelyn Collado

Becker Communications, Inc.

(808) 533-4165

CRAZY SHIRTS DONATES $50,000 TO PACIFIC HISTORIC PARKS
*Proceeds Raised from Pearl Harbor 75th Commemoration Designs

HONOLULU (March 29, 2017) – Honolulu-based Crazy Shirts donated more than $50,000 to Pacific Historic Parks to support its efforts in preserving, restoring, educating, and sharing the stories of World War II historic sites in the Pacific. The funds were raised through sales of a of their exclusive designs for the Pearl Harbor 75th Commemoration.

“It’s our honor to help remember an important part of world history and to pay tribute the troops who were part of it,” said Mark Hollander, president and chief executive officer of Crazy Shirts. “By supporting the mission of Pacific Historic Parks, future generations will also be able to appreciate the sacrifices that were made by one of the greatest generations.”

About Crazy Shirts

Founded in 1964, Crazy Shirts is among the first companies in Hawaii to design, manufacture and sell the “T-shirt” as we know it today. Housing the largest printing facility in Hawaii, on the Island of Oahu, and employing over 300 employees, the company operates retail stores on all major Hawaiian Islands, as well as stores in California, Colorado, Nevada, and Florida. For more information about Crazy Shirts, call 800-771-2720 or visit www.crazyshirts.com.

#

Photo Caption:

Crazy Shirts donated more than $50,000 to Pacific Historic Parks from proceeds of limited edition Pearl Harbor 75th Commemoration designs. Pictured from left to right: Mark

Hollander, President & CEO of Crazy Shirts; Tony Vericella, President, Island Partners Hawaii; Darcy Lindamood, Vice-president of Marketing, Crazy Shirts; Ray L'Heureux, President & CEO of Pacific Historic Parks; and Ret. Admiral Thomas Fargo, 75th Pearl Harbor Commemoration Chair.